

@irinahp´s foodie guide powered by Vienna House

Where to eat

1. Spreegold-> so many healthy choices.
2. Markthalle 9, a local market located in Kreuzberg. If you´re in Berlin on a Thursday, don´t miss their Street Food Thursday
3. There are many other street food markets, like the Bite Club, Mauerpark, Thai Park and Chai Wallahs (Indian Food).
4. To try the local most famous street food dish, the currywurst go to Curry 36 although there are lots of stands in Berlin. Oh, and the Currywurst Museum, not a good idea ;)
5. It is said Mustafa Gemüsekebab (Gemüse meaning "vegetables") is the best one in town and all the tourists wait in line sometimes for more than an hour. In my opinion it is not that amazing. Try the Imren Grill Kebap instead.
6. Some other spots for good food: The Klub Kitchen
7. Shiso Burger, Joint Burger
8. Qua Phe
9. Milja & Schäfa
10. No 58 Speiserei

Coffee places

11. My favorite café is the magical House of Small Wonders. I love every single detail about it.
12. Another beautiful place and also quite charming is Hallesches Haus, a café and general store.
13. Distrikt Coffee is also very cool, photogenic and has good pancakes. Also worth visiting.
14. Pfortner, a café in a tram.
15. Roamers
16. The Barn
17. Father Carpenther Coffee Brewers
18. Tassenkuchen
19. Ora Café
20. Kaffebar
